ALMA MATER

Staunch among the towering trees
Stands our Alma Mater fair.
Days of priceless worth are these;
None in memory compare.
With hearts to dare, high hopes to win.
Life for us must soon begin.
Not as slaves, but glad and free.
Wellington all hail to thee.

When you hear your Alma Mater, doesn't it give you a good feeling to be a member or past member of Wellington High? It makes you stop and think back to all the wonderful things you did in school.

Remember your teachers and friends? Remember your arguments and squabbles in classes? Remember the games, football and basketball? Remember how hard you yelled your team on to victory?

Just hearing these words of reverence and praise for our Alma Mater makes memories of our happy years in high school come flowing back to haunt us; makes us wish we could just live one day over again.

When you hear the strains of the Wellington High Alma Mater, don't you feel as if you could lay down your burdens and just be a Freshman again, starting your first years of high school?

Every year one class graduates, but, always, another class takes its place. Wellington will never die. It will live on long after we are gone. It will always be a wonderful memory in someone's heart.

VALEDICTORY

Through the years we have looked forward to the day when we would graduate. Now that we have at last reached our goal, do we look forward to meeting the inevitable challenges and crises in our future life?

We can look back upon these twelve years and see how well we have been prepared to meet this challenge. We have been guided and taught by our school, church, and parents to be persons well able to meet the life ahead of us.

Our school and teachers have taught us many things besides the usual academic subjects. They have taught us the importance of being loyal citizens, sportsmanship in all things, leadership, the ability to follow, responsibility, and respect for higher authority.

Our parents have instilled in us good character, high ideals, honesty, and integrity. They have at the same time taught us love, understanding, and compassion for our fellow man.

Our church, no matter what denomination, has taught us to have faith in the future.

Each of us as individuals has high ambitions and each hds a good chance for success in this democratic nation of ours. Without an education we would not be able to enjoy life to its fullest extent or to obtain success in our chosen vocations.

The responsibility for a better and more peaceful nation rests with us, the youth of today.

I believe that we, the Class of 1956, are fully able to meet the challenges that lie ahead of us and that we will be a credit to our school, parents, and church.

CLASS HISTORY

Once upon a time 12 years ago in September 1944, an eager group of moppets converged on the first grade room of Miss Taylor and Miss Cannon. Among this group we find Allan Anderson, Dennis Arndt, Sonja Auble, Barbara Bassett, John BeVier, Marlene Broud, Duane Cole, Deanna Cooper, Rosie Farago, Russell Furcron, David Gott, Sue Grissinger, Dale Jackson, Lawrence Jordan, Carol McConnell, Jane McHenry, Marlene Mohrman, Carol Moore, Ronald Mosher, Veronica O'Keefe, William Poiner, Kathleen Sawyer, James Sheffield, Gary Smith, James Street, and Randall Wagner.

Year II. After three months of vacation and a promotion to the second grade we confronted our new teachers Mrs. Dudgeon and Miss Swartz. In addition to moving our reading to a higher level we also learned some new names. Judy Fowler from North Royalton and David Brown and Mary Lou Smith.

Year III. Just think, only nine more years to go! Under the careful guidance of Miss Eckert and Mrs. Bleman we managed to keep afloat. This year we lost two of our pupils, Jane McHenry to Celina and John BeVier to Brighton. We also gained seven new pupils. Barbara Bricker from Homerville; Doris Garfield from Hamilton School, Elyria; Max Storrow and Don Vickers from Brighton; Philip Dague; Robert Fisher; and Ronald Thompson.

Year IV. Mrs. Fisher and Miss Preston, our teachers, not only introduced us to a new subject, Geography; but also to some new classmates—Lorna England and Stanley Wilczak from Elyria.

Year V. With John BeVier back from Brighton and the addition of Marilyn Winson from LaGrange and Norma Brown, Sandra Hayes, Kenneth Heiden, Carl Marley and Robert Swartz our class numbered 42. Our teachers this year were Mrs. Carruthers and Mrs. Kiplinger.

Year VI. Under the tutelage of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Pratt we worked hard toward our first year in Junior High. Our only new pupil this year was Ed Brasee from Brighton.

Year VII and VIII. Such Experiences; going to High School assemblies, having to change classes. With the help of Miss Waring, Mrs. Piper, Mr. Shellhouse, and Mr. Dussel we progressed to reasonably acceptable Freshmen. During this period we not only welcomed Jane McHenry back, but also added the names of Lauretta Lindsey from Elyria, Pat Rutter from The Plains School at Athens, and Marjorie Stanfield from Sullivan.

Year IX. We now have reached High School and have met many new classmates from Brighton; Gary Anderson, Roger Biddle, LeLand Crandall, Judy Fowler, Annette Klein, Linda Matcham, Carol Moore, Rhea Peet, Rita Shays, Jerry Sikora, and Philip Whitney. From other schools: Sandra Amato, Parma; James Blevins, Sharondale, Ky.; Bernice Ellis, Norwalk, and Don Vickers, Monogahela, Pa.

Year X. In the Sophomore year under the direction of Miss Bennett, Mrs. Baker, and Miss Foster, we elected Russell Furcron, President; Ed Aldrich, Vice-President; Sonja Auble, Secretary; and Linda Matcham, Treasurer. Betty Wingenfeld from Camden and Ed Aldrich from Chicago were the only transfers.

Year XI. Committees for Jr.-Sr. and class rings constituted projects of the year. In the able hands of our advisors Mrs. Gannett, Miss Hoffman, and Mrs. Green, our officers Sue Grissinger, President; Gary Smith, Vice-President; Jane McHenry, Secretary; and Ed Aldrich, Treasurer; we managed to survive. During this year we added two new students; Walter Shontz, Seneca, Pa., and Wayne Hyde from Oberlin.

Year XII. Graduation left only the wide world to conquer. Our advisors this year were Miss Bennett and Mr. Deal. We elected Don Vickers, President; Rosie Farago, Vice-President; Sonja Auble, Secretary; and Jane McHenry, Treasurer. Donna Tippens from Ravenswood, West Virginia, was the only new student.

CLASS WILL

We the graduating class of 1956, being of reasonably sound mind, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the Juniors we bequeath the hallowed Senior seats in the auditorium and the privilege of filing into all assemblies.

To the Sophomores we bequeath the honor of serving their senior class by giving them a memorable Junior-Senior Prom.

To the Freshmen we bequeath a portion of our dignity to be used now that they are becoming older and more acceptable to society.

I, Allan Anderson, leave my grades to my girlfriend, Cathy Roser.

I, Gary Anderson, leave my seat in typing class to anyone who likes an easy subject.

I, Edward Aldrich, leave my dirty white bucks and my crazy plaid hats to Michael Harris.

I, Sandra Amato, leave my front seat in every class to Bob Norton.

I, Dennis Arndt, leave my position as band field marshall to John Halliwill.

I, Sonja Auble, leave the school.

I, Barbara Bassett, leave my ability to get along with teachers to my sister Beverly, who needs it.

I, John BeVier, leave to Mike Harris my ability to come from the 3rd floor and be first in lunch line.

I, Roger Biddle, leave my knowledge of radios to Robert Soley and my ability to ride motorcycles to James Grimes.

I, James Blevins, leave my "beard" to Chucky Goff.

I, Edwin Brassee, leave my hot rodding to Allen Knapp.

I, Barbara Bricker, leave my chair in first clarinet to Shirley Hawkins.

I, Marlene Broud, leave my nickname "shorty" to my sister Louanne, or any other future Senior under five foot.

I, David Brown, leave my ability in long distance running to any Junior that can fill the bill.

I, Norma Brown, leave my bright color clothes to Kay Carmen.

I, Duane Cole, leave my ability to talk out of turn to anyone taking Speech.

I, Deanna Cooper, leave my nickname "Dirty Dimples" to Peg Poiner for I can't seem to get rid of it any other way.

I, Leland Crandall, leave my ability to be in A Cappella for four years to anyone capable of doing it.

I, Philip Dague, leave my running ability to John Brown.

I, Bernice Ellis, leave my poodle cut to Sue Thornton.

I, Lorna England, leave my quiet ways to Molly Wight.

I, Rosie Farago, leave the parties at my house to my brother Carl to keep them in the family. Have fun, Carl. I did!!

I, Judy Fowler, leave my ability to make mistakes in typing to anyone who can afford to buy the erasers.

I, Robert Fisher, leave my football goggles to Tom West.

I, Russell Furcron, leave my position of football co-captain to anyone deserving of it.

I, Doris Garfield, leave my height to Mrs. Baker.

I, David F. Gott, leave only part of my ability to get A's and B's without taking books home to Bill Brumfield because I'll need the rest in college.

I, Sue Grissinger, leave my ability to blush easily to Dale Ziegler.

I, Sandra Hayes, leave my ability to tell people off to Nancy George, who already has a good start.

I, Kenneth Heiden, leave my ability to go hunting all day and still get an excused absence to Keith Sugaski.

I, Wayne Hyde, will not leave anything to anybody because I got it changed to traveler's checks and I'm taking it with me.

I, Dale Jackson, leave my little white coat to anyone who wants my position at the drugstore.

I, Lawrence Jordan, leave my nickname "Stinky" to my brother Pete.

I, Annette Klein, leave my quiet manner to Barbara O'Keefe.

I, Lauretta Lindsey, leave my ability to have a ride home every noon, to Nancy Faight.

I, Carl Marley, leave my football manager's job to anyone who wants to steal jerseys.

I, Linda Matcham, leave my Cheerleading position to anyone with ability and good sportsmanship.

I, Carol McConnell, leave my ability of reducing to anyone who can stand to eat rabbit food.

I, Jane McHenry, leave the football crown to any Junior or Sophomore girl that the student body believes is worthy of it.

I, Carol Moore, leave my witty ways to any immature Junior who wants it.

I, Marlene Mohrman, leave my majorette uniform to anyone who can wear it.

I, Ronald Mosher, leave all of my magazines to anybody who wants them.

I, Veronica O'Keefe, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Dussel to my sister, Barbara.

I, Rhea Peet, leave my ability to climb three flights of stairs the first thing every morning to anyone who has the ambition.

I, William Poiner, leave my height to Mr. Barbe.

I, Patricia Rutter, leave my books and quietness to my sister, Sue, or anyone else who wants them.

I, Kathleen Sawyer, leave my long hair and a bottle of peroxide to Mr. McCormick.

I, Rita Shays, leave my ability to get Dan's car to drive to school to anybody who has a boyfriend nice enough to let them have it.

I, James Sheffield, leave one of my bow ties to Mr. Deal.

I, Walter Shontz, leave my ability to become a Senior to all Juniors who don't make it this year.

I, Jerry Sikora, leave my many address books to anyone who needs them.

I, Gary Smith, leave my ability to make the honor roll to Cherrie Babitt, who will have lots of time to study.

I, Mary Lou Smith, leave my set in Bookkeeping class to anyone who understands it.

I, Marge Stanfield, leave my ability to walk into home room late and have an excuse, to anyone who can talk fast.

I, Max Storrow, leave my right guard position in football to anyone who can make it.

I, James Street, leave my seat in Bookkeeping class to Allen Green and my brother if they're crazy enough to want it.

I, Robert Swartz, will my first string position at fullback to anyone who can make the team.

I, Ronald Thompson, leave my position as tackle to my brother, Tom, that he might hold it for three years as I did.

I, Donna Tippens, leave my southern accent to Miss Bennett.

I, Don Vickers, leave my Buick convertible to any sucker who'll buy it.

I, Randall Wagner, leave my candelabra to anyone who wants it.

I, Philip Whitney, leave my height to Junior Dunford.

I, Stanley Wilczak, leave my seat in Civics class to anybody who likes to sleep.

I, Betty Wingenfeld, leave my ability to get "kicked" out of class to Grace Sawyer who already has a good start.

I, Marilyn Winson, leave my book on "How to Become a Farmer's Wife" to Edith Mull.

I, Marlene Young, leave my quietness to my sister Pat.

CLASS PROPHECY

Stepping down off the train I looked about the town and I realized it had been a long time since I had been home and a lot of things had changed. For this was 1966 and a long way from the day we went proudly tramping across the stage to that diploma. I proceeded to Jackson's Drug Store to purchase an Enterprise. I was surprised to see Dale had hired three new clerks to take care of his booming business, Barbara Bricker, Marlene Young, and Judy Fowler. He confided in me; he always consulted his business advisors Jim Street and Jerry Sikora before he made a business venture.

Approaching the square I saw a large crowd was gathering, so I investigated and there upon some up-turned soap boxes were some people yelling and shouting something about a campaign for "The Prevention of Cruelty to Farmers." When I pushed closer I recognized the active campaigners as Ed Brasee, Leland Crandall, Kenny Heiden, Lawrence Jordan, James Sheffield, and Philip Whitney.

In a few minutes the excitement was over as the squad cars approached and Police Chief Stanley Wilczak, aided by patrolmen Bob Fisher, Duane Cole, and David Gott, quieted down the demonstrators.

As I looked around the town I noticed how many new stores there were and how many had changed hands such as Aldrich's Thrifty-Nifty Shoe Store, Anderson's Jewelry Store, Stanfield's Delicatessen, The Arndt and Smith Chemical Corporation, and Hyde's Super Market.

In one of the windows was a poster telling of the art display at the library by the two famous artists Veronica O'Keefe and Sandra Amato.

Finally reaching home, I sat down and proceeded to read my paper. The headlines read "Poiner's Gas Corporation Robbed." The story went on to say owner Bill Poiner could give no leads and neither could any of his private secretaries Marilyn Winson, Bernice Ellis, and Laurie Lindsey.

The head-lines on the sports page were "Cleveland Browns Beat Philadelphia." Outsanding players in the game were Cleveland's four All-American's, Russ Furcron, Ron Thompson, Don Vickers, and Bob Swartz.

Pep and enthusiasm were added to the game by cheerleaders from the Shays - Matcham School of Cheerleading.

Music was under the direction of Randall Wagner. Head referee was Carl Marley with assistants Roger Biddle, Allan Anderson, and David Brown.

The majorettes were all students of the M.S.R. School of Twirling owned by Marlene Mohrman, Kathy Sawyer, and Pat Rutter.

Farther down the page was a picture of four Power's models, boarding a plane for a fashion show in Paris. I recognized them as Sue Grissinger, Sonja Auble, Donna Tippens, and Jane McHenry.

Exactly opposite was an article about the Stock Car Racing Association's Championship race on Saturday. It seemed as if Jim Blevins, Phil Dague, and Ronnie Mosher were vying for the trophy and in the powder-puff division, Marlene Broud, Deanna Cooper, and Annette Klein were trying for the Championship.

On the inside was a full-page ad announcing the opening of another of Farago's Pizza Houses. This will be the largest and will be operated by Rosie Farago. She has hired a large staff to manage it headed by waitresses Norma Brown, Lorna England, and Mary Smith. Carol McConnell and her piano mastery was the act billed for the opening week.

Another announcement was Bassett's Apparel Shop opening a branch in Oberlin and owner Barbara Bassett has hired fashion specilalists, Rhea Peet, Betty Wingenfeld, and Sandra Hayes to operate it.

More in the sports news was "Doris Garfield" and her all-girl, all stars amazed the country with their terrific basketball playing on their last tour.

Right below the ad for Walter Shontz's Mercury Agency was the television program. The feature for the evening was the world famous comedy team of John Be-Vier and Carol Moore on WXEL at 8:00.

The A cappella choir is composed of fifty-three Seniors and Juniors. A smaller group known as the Inner Choir is composed of twenty-four members of the A cappella. This group has given several performances for various groups throughout the year, including The World Day of Prayer.

A Senior member of the choir Randall Wagner is the accompanist.

The choir chose officers to carry out the necessary business, they are as follows: President, Marlene Mohrman; Vice-President, Melinda Murray; Secretary-Treasurer, Judy Goff.

The choir was very sorry to lose their director, Mrs. Lawrence BeVier, who had to give up teaching in January on account of health.

This distress was greatly eased when Mrs. Fred Steen took over the choir shortly after the second semester began.

The entire choir gave a memorable Christmas program at the Congregational Church under the direction of Mrs. BeVier. Along with the A cappella choir there were selections by seven soloists and the Inner Choir. The choir also performed in the Christmas Assembly at school.

They began working on music for a spring program and for graduation exercises immediately after Mrs. Steen's arrival.

CONCERT

During the football season the marching band gave many different half-time shows and helped out the cheering section, both at games and at prep rallies. After football season ended, the concert band started practicing semi-classical and pop music for the League Band Festival and the high school band assembly. Next came the solo and ensemble contests in which many band members participated. Later in the Spring, the annual band concert was held. Of course, as in past years, the marching band played for the Memorial Day Parade and exercises.

The Wellington Dukes were blessed with their second Lakeland Conference Championship football team in succession. The team, built around eight returning lettermen, was said to be the best defensively in Lorain county. The team had only 32 points scored on them in 9 games. Seven of those 32 points were scored in 5 league games.

The Dukes ended their season the only undefeated team in Lorain county and with a record of 16 games in a row without a defeat.

One of the games the Dukes were really up for ended in a 47-0 victory over an old rival, New London. The victory gave Wellington the Legion trophy for the third and final time.

The brunt of the Dukes attack was placed on the shoulders of all-conference lettermen Ron Thompson, tackle; Mike Harris, end; Don Vickers, tackle; John Dickason, back; Lee Grissinger, back, and all-conference co-captains Max Starrow and Russ Furcron. But credit must also be given to boys like Bob Swartz, Bob Fisher, Richard "Doc" McKenzie, Roger Freeman, Dave Gott, and Dale Ziegler.

One Senior, three Juniors and one Sophomore comprised the starting team this year. Usually during a game only one or two players were able to score in the double column, although separately each was a good shooter. Most of the games were close and gave the audience a lot of thrills, however, many of the final scores showed Wellington on the short end. The final record was 7 wins and 10 losses. Three of the games won were league games, the rest were independent.

Zeigler was the leading scorer, Furcron was the playmaker of the team, and Dickason with his speed and alertness was always a threat on defense. Harris, the one Sophomore, possessed his share of shooting ability, while Dick McKenzie represented Wellington in the annual Press Foul Shooting Contest held in Cleveland. BeVier, Grissinger, and Sugaski substituted frequently, and Aldrich, Crapo, and Fisher saw action, too.

The varsity team loses only four Seniors since four of the remaining players were starters, we should be seeing a lot of exciting action from the team next year. Loud applause goes to Coach Shellhouse, who molded the team together and taught them sportsman-like conduct which showed up on the floor and was appreciated by the audience, and referees, and the opposing teams.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

The Reserve team under the training of Coach Gove. The team having height, but needing more accuracy in shooting, shows great promise for a future varsity team. Winning eight and losing nine games, they proved interesting basketball for the early arrivals to the varsity games. The team has enjoyed working together and it has given them good experience. They are hoping for a more successful season next year.

BASEBALL

Wellington, in 1956, will have five returning lettermen from the 1955 season. They are as follows: Row One: Lee Grissinger, pitcher; John Dickason, second base. Row Two: Dale Ziegler, third base; Wayne Hyde, pitcher; Jerry Sikora, shortstop.

This is the first year since 1942 that Wellington has had a baseball picture in the Annual. After 1942, Wellington dropped baseball and it wasn't brought back until 1953, eleven years later.

These five lettermen and many newcomers will be out there this spring time for a better record than last year. Last year's team started out the season very well, when on opening day Lee Grissinger shutuot New London 4-0 on the home diamond. After that they cooled off to the point where they won only one more game the rest of the season. Five of the seven games they lost were lost by only one or two runs but they won over Lorain and Elyria by only about this much margin.

The team had the privilege of playing in the presence of a Cleveland Indians' scout. The game was at Rocky River in which Wayne Hyde went all the way to lose by a score of 2-0.

Mike Harris pitched the Reserve game with Elyria and also the last three innings of the game with Huron in which Wayne Hyde left the game with the score 7-0 in Wellington's favor and went on to win 12-2.

TRACK

These seven lettermen will be heavily counted on as the Wellington High track squad goes into the 1956 schedule. They are John BeVier, mile relay and high jump; Bill Poiner, 440 and mile relay; Russ Furcron, discus, 440, and mile relay; Lee Grissinger, weights; Mike Harris, high jump and hurdles; John Brown, 100 and 220; Bob Fisher, hurdles and mile relay. Absent from this picture is letterman Ron Thompson who is a weightman. The track team is under the training of Coach Campbell. In last year's competition Wellington lost dual meets to Vermillion and Clearview while tying Amherst, but they placed second in 2 quadrangular meets. Wellington came in fifth at the Lakeland Conference meet held at Clearview. Jack Kepler, who went to the state meet, will be the team's biggest loss.
